NEW INDUSTRIES.

(Continued from Page 1) by the experts of the Federal periment Station show that the second cropping of the Sea Island cotton has proved better than the first. Senator Morgan may not have been as widely informed on the subject or perhaps they have found out new things about cotton.

"Anyway I shall do what I can in the way of experimental plots, and I hope it will succeed. It is an attractive crop on account of a bale of cotton having an immediate value the moment it is put on the wharf for shipment.

"If any of our people have so much money that they don't know what to do with it, let them put it into the new industries, better than reading it out of the is lands.
